MEETING GROWS IN SPITE OF WEATHER

Neighborhood Prayer Meetings Are Proving An Important Factor and Great Influence.

The great union revival now in progress is growing daily in interest and in its breadth of influence. The prayer meetings yesterday afternoon reported a large attendance and the fact that there are eleven such meetings being held each afternoon has quite a significance as to the hold the meeting has taken in the minds and hearts of the people.

Last night's services were held at the Methodist Church, the tent being a little uncomfortable on account of the northern that was blowing. The house was filled almost to its capacity, and the singing was perhaps the best of the meeting up to the present time, the entire congregation joining the choir in some of the old familiar hymns.

Mr. Storey, the Presbyterian minister, spoke interestingly on the question asked by Pilate, "What shall I do, then, with Jesus, which is called Christ?" These words were spoken when the Savior was before Pilate to be judged of him. The preacher told of the events just preceding the one under discussion, and showed that Pilate was placed in a most unenviable position between the choice of pleasing Caesar and that of doing what he knew to be right. But Pilate was obliged to render a decision. He might have dismissed the case and had nothing to do with it, but that that would have been a decision against Christ.

All the unsaved are placed in the same position tonight. You must render a decision on the question, "What will I do with Jesus which is called Christ?" No minister or father or mother or any other soul in all the earth can render the decision for you. You can not postpone it, for that in itself is a decision against Christ.

Pilate had heard all the evidence and he must now in a moment's time make a decision. There is no righteous reason for delay. Every one is obliged to make a decision tonight. You can not say that you must take time to hear the claims of Christ. You are already well acquainted with them.

None can say "I have other things that I must attend to first." Nothing is half so important as an answer to this question. Pilate was in such a position that great importance attached to his making a decision at once, and yet every unconverted person before me tonight is in just such a strenuous situation.

Instantly you have decided for Christ your sins are passed away—you become a child of God—and there begins in your life that sanctifying process which shall continue until you are forever in the presence of God's eternal glory. Much depends upon the decision you make tonight.

After considerable hesitation, Pilate decided against Christ. He knew he was trampling justice under foot—going against his own heart and conscience, and condemning an innocent man. In a book "Letters From Hell," among the punishments that were pictured in that place of torment Pilate was seen washing his hands in a river and it was said that he had been there all these centuries trying to wash the blood of Jesus from his hands, but there was still just as much on them as there was the day he decided against Christ.

All those before whom Jesus had appeared had something to do with the decision Pilate was making against Jesus, and all were guilty as much so as if they had condemned Him.

The question comes home to each unconverted person here tonight, "What will you do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

There were no services this morning. Some of the prayer meetings are being held this afternoon, and it is probable that the usual meetings of ladies' societies will be held in the respective churches at the accustomed hour on Monday afternoon.

There will be services at the usual hour this evening, and at the morning and evening hours tomorrow. This is a good time for all who have not aligned themselves with the meeting to do so and to plan their daily duties so as to give as much time as possible to the interests of the meeting, which, by the way, are none other than the best interests of all the individuals of our citizenship. The churches are not doing this special work primarily for themselves, but for the good of a great cause, namely, that of improving the conditions of life for everybody in the town and surrounding country, and it has been well said that "the soul of all improvement is the improvement of the soul."

The public of every faith and of no faith is invited to attend and participate in the good work and of its benefits. The service tonight will be held in the Methodist Church. A. T. C.

BRYAN DEFEATED NAVASOTA.

Trimmed Visitors to Tune of 10 to 0 in Lively Contest.

The Bryan High School baseball team outplayed the Navasota High School boys in every department of the game yesterday afternoon and defeated them by a score of 10 to 0. The Bryan boys showed great improvement in their fielding and batting and almost every man on the team registered a hit during the game. Fast fielding at times prevented the Navasota team from scoring and several runs were cut off in this manner. Shramek for Bryan pitched an excellent game and kept the hits well scattered. This victory for the Bryan boys evens matters up between the two teams and a deciding game will be played some time in the near future.

The game was played in a chilling gale from the north and this prevented the game from being well attended, but several spectators were present, and despite the cold wind, remained during the entire game.

Following is the line-up of the teams:

Bryan.	Position.	Navasota.
H. Harrison	Short	McKinney
Scardino	1b	Bailey
Griffin	2b	Brainerd
Locke	Catcher	Williams
Shramek	Pitcher	Perry
Robinson	L. F.	Carpenter
Parker	C. F.	Barry
Griffin	R. F.	Fahey

MANY BIDDERS ON ROADS.

According to reports, the $400,000 to be spent on good roads in this county in the near future has attracted quite a number of road builders, and up to yesterday afternoon eleven requests had been made for plans and specifications by prospective bidders, and more requests are coming in every day. The bids will be opened and the contract for the work will be let by the commissioners' court and the advisory committee on April 16.

RAIN BADLY NEEDED.

I. M. Cook, a prominent farmer of the Steep Hollow community was in the city on business today. Mr. Cook states that his part of the county failed to receive a drop of the rain Thursday night and that they are in considerable need of moisture. The cold wind of last night and today, he says, will make what cotton is up look very sick, and a good rain would be a precious gift.
